Incidents

Shooting Investigation – On September 23 at 4:07PM, officers responded to the area of Flotilla Way and Dyers Mill Ct. in Woodbridge (22191) to investigate a shooting. The investigation revealed that the driver of a vehicle, identified as 26-year-old man, and several other passengers were driving through the above area when their vehicle was shot at by an unknown man. The driver returned fire before fleeing the area and encountering police on an unrelated call in the area of Fox Lair Dr. As a result of the shooting, a 15-year-old male passenger was grazed by a round and a second passenger, a 25-year-old woman, sustained minor injuries after being struck by debris. No additional injuries were reported. While canvassing, officers located multiple shell casings and additional vehicles with damage consistent with being struck by projectiles. Video surveillance from a nearby residence was received by police showing part of the incident. Detectives are actively investigating to determine the events that led up to the shooting. The investigation continues.
